

Call for Papers

1st Cambridge Alumni in Macro (CAM) Conference

9 and 10 May, 2024 University of Cambridge

Together with the Janeway Institute, the Faculty of Economics at the University of Cambridge is hosting the first edition of its Cambridge Alumni in Macro (CAM) conference. The aim of the conference is to bring together macroeconomic researchers with links to Cambridge in order to build networks across generations of alumni and also with current students.

Professor Stefanie Stantcheva (Harvard University) has kindly agreed to provide a keynote speech at the conference.

Eligibility and Submission Criteria

We invite submissions of theoretical and empirical papers in all areas of macroeconomics and from University of Cambridge alumni broadly defined. In addition to those who completed their Ph.D. at the Faculty of Economics, we are also keen to receive submissions from macroeconomists who completed any degree at the University of Cambridge or who have previously worked at the University at any level.

Submission

Please submit your paper or extended abstract by 12th January 2024, via this form (https://forms.gle/ZHnXz9FZXH6qRPWn9). If you do not have a Google account, you can email your submission to us at CambridgeMacroAlumniConference@gmail.com. In your submission, please briefly state your link to the University of Cambridge.

Information

The conference will take place at the Cavonius Centre of Gonville & Caius College, West Road, Cambridge. The event will be held in person.

We aim to open the event to as many alumni as possible and hope to accommodate as many papers as possible. If you would like to attend, or are interested in discussing a paper, regardless of whether you present your paper, please let us know in your submission.
